

Infanta Summer Programme

Including; Douarnenez, Regattes Royals Cannes, Voiles de St Tropez, Majorca, Ibiza, Minorca, Gibraltar, Agadir.

Infanta is a powerful, stylish 51 ft Philip Rhodes designed yawl. She can serve equally well as an easily handled, roomy cruiser or a demanding, fast racer. She comes with a crew of one or two depending on her role. Typically she will cruise with a maximum of six crew including a skipper and race with ten including a skipper and mate. At regattas the crew sleep ashore.

After the British Classic Yacht Club Regatta in July, Infanta is leaving Cowes on an extended racing and cruising programme which will end with the Transat Classique in November.

Members can enjoy Mediterranean cruises or the thrill of rubbing shoulders with the elite of the Classic fleet at Cannes or St. Tropez
